13TH FEB TABLETOP RALLY ORGANISED BY RALPH JACKSON ON MAP 100 B1.

Alastair Crosby did a fine job organising a few people to take part in this event and when the flag dropped Alastair, Jason Turner and Chris Jarvis and Richard Hield were all jostling for position. It was about seven months since I had devised this tabletop in the first place and since that time the Ordnance Survey have come up with another money making idea. Yes, another edition of map 100 which the tabletop was based upon. Only Alastair had this map and he spotted the a problem. When he queried it I checked on my map and got thoroughly confused as since I had organised the tabletop initially, I had put on another for the New Earswick evening class as the original tabletop was too hard. Unfortunately this second tabletop which had to finish at the Durham Ox meant that I had to erase part of my tabletop route from my map. So on checking the route panic set in and I had to pause all of my competitors as I felt a drastic rewrite was on the cards. After 5 minutes I realised that the route was actually in order and I set the competitors off again. I had to scrub the time limit of 30 minutes to allow the competitors to finish and on marking the map I found that Jason and Chris/Richard had both incurred a fail. So the winner turned out to be Alastair with 44 minutes of time penalties, second was Jason Turner with one fail and 43 time penalties and third were Chris and Richard with one fail and 45 time penalties. Thank you to each of them for taking part and I hope it has given them some more confidence to go out and have a go at Road Rallies as Alastair suggested that the clues on current Road Rallies are usually easier than these.

20TH FEB DARTS KNOCKOUT.

I didn't make this one so someone will have to give me the results for the championships.

22ND FEB KALL KWIK FOREST STAGES RALLY.

So which marshalls signed on for marshalling on this then?

27TH FEB NAVIGATIONAL SCATTER BY BEN LAWRENSON.

I didn't make this one so someone will have to give me the results for the championships.

28th FEB Leeds Uni MC Northern Lights Road Rally.
